Learn how Chicago ENT is continuing to serve patients and the Chicago community during the COVID-19 pandemic. We'll share how to access our physicians via telemedicine services, how our safety first culture has allowed us to adapt our protocols and spaces - qualifying Chicago ENT as a COVID-Safe clinic environment, and an interactive Q&A with the attendees.

Dr. Michael Friedman is named 2020 Chicago Top Doctor

Congratulations to Chicago ENT's Michael Friedman, MD for being named to Chicago Magazine's Top Doctors 2020 list.

According to Chicago magazine, physicians are selected as the best in their specialty by their peers. The selection process considers these nominations along with physicians' educational and professional experience. The list includes 395 specialists and 100 primary care doctors across the Chicago area.

"I am honored and humbled to be recognized by my peers as a Top Doctor. Chicago ENT is committed to excellence and to providing superior ENT care to each patient at every visit. My personal practice philosophy is to care for each patient just as I would care for a family member or friend." - Dr. Michael Friedman

The annual list of Top Doctors can be found in Chicago magazine's January 2020 issue and online.
